

Cybercrimes and Cyber Security: The Legal Perspectives

Information Technology Act, 2000

- IT Act, was notified on October 2000
- It is the law that deals with cybercrime and electronic commerce in india
- Objectives of the Act
 - Grant legal recognition to all transactions done via electronic exchange of data or other electronic means of communication or e-commerce
 - digital signatures for the authentication of any information or matters requiring legal authentication
 - Government agencies and also departments

Features of the Information Technology Act, 2000

- All electronic contracts made through secure electronic channels are legally valid
- Legal recognition for digital signatures
- An appeal against the order of the Cyber Appellant Tribunal is possible only in the High Court
- Senior police officers and other officers can enter any public place and search and arrest without warrant
- Provisions for the constitution of a Cyber Regulations Advisory Committee to advise the Central Government and Controller

- Cyber Crime

- Any criminal activity that uses a computer
- It can be against individuals, individual properties, organisation and society

- Classification of Cyber Crime

- Cyber-stalking
- Unauthorized control/access over computer system
- Email spoofing
- Cheating & fraud

- Against Organization

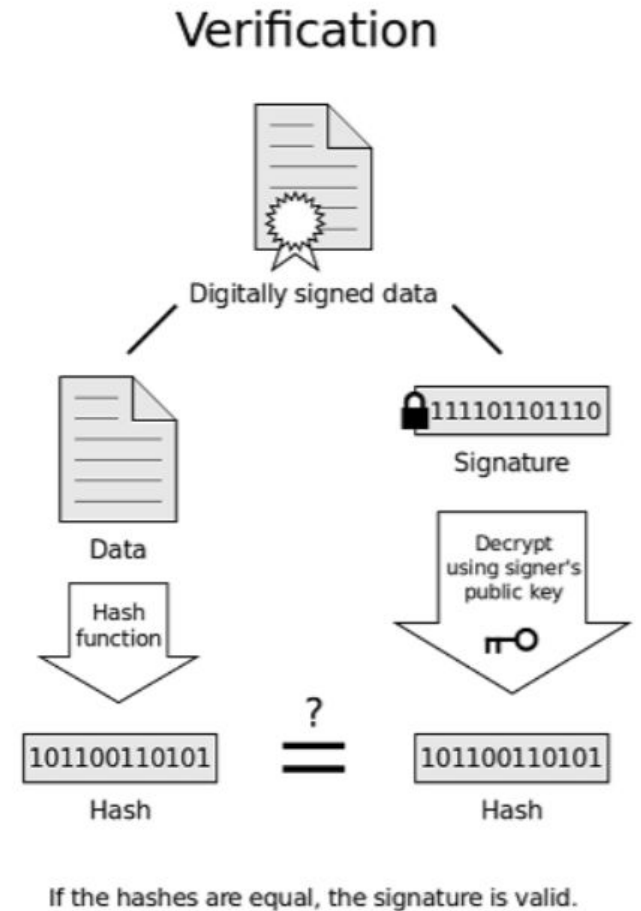

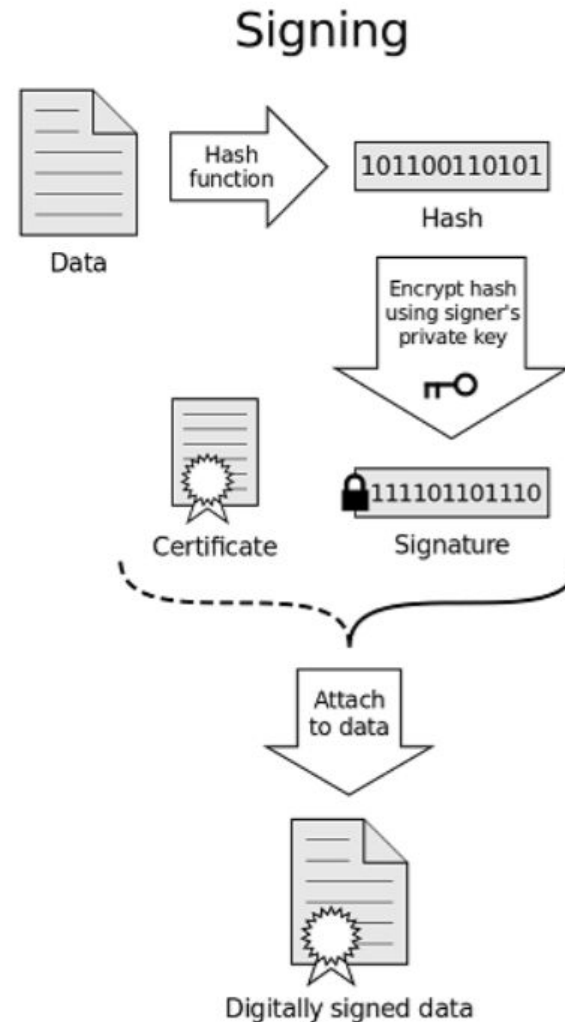

- Cyber terrorism against the government

Digital Signature

- Authenticity of the identity of the person or to prove the integrity of information.
- Any subscriber may authenticate an electronic record by affixing his digital signature.
- It contains:
 - Owner's public key
 - The owner's name
 - Expiration date of the public key
 - The name of the issuer
 - Serial number of the digital signature

Three Algorithms of Digital Signature

- Key Generation
- Signing
- Signature
- Aspects of Digital Signatur
 - Authentication
 - Integrity
 - Non-Repudiation

- Uses of Digital Signature

- At secured zones of web sites
- Digitally sign your emails sent through Outlook Express/MS-Outlook etc.
- To publish electronic versions of the budget, public and private laws

- Digital Signature Certificate

- Issued under section 35(4)
- Proof of identity.
- Validity for 1 or 2 years